

A community that learns, grows and succeeds together.

British Values in Early years

Planning and Provision	Respect for the rule of law	Individual liberty	Democracy	Mutual respect and tolerance for different faiths and beliefs
Characteristics of Effective Learning.	Children participate in routines.	Children realise that their actions have an effect on the world so they want to keep on repeating them. Children make independent choices. Children concentrate on achieving something that's important to them. Children guide their own thinking and actions.		Children bring their own interests and fascinations into their work and play to develop their learning. Children respond to new experiences that adults and other children bring to their attention.
Commando Joe		Children have confidence in their own abilities and help and support others through sharing and respecting others' opinions.	Children know that their views count. Demonstrating democracy in action.

Talk Ons	Everyone participating in 'Talk On' discussions.	Children are supported to listen to others and think for themselves, respecting the ideas and opinions of others.	Recognising their viewpoint is relevant and important.	Learning about the world through discussions which promote being wiser, self-aware and world aware.
Curriculum Plans	Communication and Language Development plans	Maths Development - approaching problem solving. Understanding the World.	Physical Development Expressive Arts and Design	Personal, Social and Emotional Development Long Term Plan and Literacy plans. Recognise that people have different beliefs and celebrate special times in different ways. (People, Culture and Communities element of Understanding the World) Understand that some places are special to members of their community. (People, Culture and Communities element of Understanding the World) Understand the need to respect and care for the natural environment and all living things. (The Natural World)